

Shively People Again Flee Flood Threat

Shively residents, hard hit in both the 1955 and 1964 pre-Christmas floods, were evacuated to Rohns-ville airport yesterday afternoon in the face of still another flood-threat. U. S. Army helicopters flew many rescue missions as soon as a weather front which had grounded them all morning lifted. Structure at upper left is a portable air control tower.

Lowdale Bottoms Heeds Flood Warning

They have a Pretty good road
out of town No
as long as it doesn't rain.

Gaining up into the bridge from Farrukh.

AT THIS TIME THE RUI'S...
...of the 10th Congress. The Carolina, Tennessee, Texas an Virginia.
The remainder of the Democrats who voted against the
The biggest House majority crates, with 286 members, have but it still can make its ges-
sion felt.
...but it still can make its ges-
sion felt.
...but it still can make its ges-
sion felt.
...but it still can make its ges-
sion felt.

beca
Bot