BATTLE LANTERNS

They're there for a purpose
And not to be toys;
They soon become worthless
If played with by "boys."

On that purpose rely,
As each one should know,
When other lights die
These lanterns will glow.

And does every one see,
Why the wire in the base;
Automatic they'll be
If it's kept in it's place.

So don't use for a search
Where lights do not shine,
'Cause you may need a hearse
Instead of this rhyme.
