Pilots and crews stand before three of the helicopters they used to perform emergency missions the past four days. The Army brought in a flight of eight choppers Thursday and followed with eight more Saturday. The choppers are based at Rohnerville Airport.

Army Troops Billeted At College

Troops from the 17th Army Aviation School rest in their quarters in the Humboldt State College women's gymnasium Tuesday evening. The emergency billet was arranged by the college as the soldiers were flown here from Fort Benning, Ga., to help with flood relief.

Shively residents, hard hit in both the 1935 and 1964 pre-Christmas floods, were evacuated to Rohnerville airport yesterday afternoon in the face of still another flood-threat. U. S. Army helicopters f many rescue missions as soon as a weather front which had grounded them all morning lifted. Structural tower,

Ferndale Bottoms

Many Ferndale Bottoms residents took heed yesterday's flood-threat warning by the Office Civil Defense and the sheriff's department, result in a flow of vehicles over the badly wrecked way through deep mud and slush. The vehicles
