

The Winner's Prize

NAVY FIRST

First Chinese to "command" a ship of the U. S. Navy.

Sing Hoy, a cabin steward attached to USS PERRY in 1906. PERRY was undergoing repairs at Mare Island Navy Yard when San Francisco was struck by the earthquake and fire. In the press of arranging rescue expeditions to San Francisco on April 18, Commandant Mare Island ordered some of the officers and crew of the PERRY to man various yard craft, and others volunteered for such duty. Not until April 23 when all hands returned to the PERRY, was it discovered that in fact "all hands and the ship's cook" had been away fighting fire in San Francisco and the only man left on board was the steward, Sing Hoy, who for several days had been in sold command of a warship in full commission.

A group of Japanese Sea Scouts, while touring Bennington in Sasebo, Japan, take a look at an SH-4 Helicopter, as Don Rishida SN, gives a few pertinent facts.

KBEN SKED

During the past few months KBEN Radio has undergone many changes. The Disc Jockeys all work on their off-hours, taking a considerable amount of time. It is their concern to do their best to please the listening audience.

Any suggestions a listener might have to offer will be welcomed by the staff of KBEN.
