

C54—PINEAPPLE FIELDS

Long strips of specially treated paper are laid over ground which has been carefully prepared. Through punctures in the papers, slips of pineapple are inserted. The paper, by conserving the moisture and subduing the weeds, increases the growth of the plant and yield of the fruit.

From an original Kodachrome
by Mike Roberts.

COLOR CARD

REPRODUCED from NATURAL COLOR PHOTOGRAPHS

Address

