

Streaking from the sky in a suicidal attempt to crash against an Essex-class carrier, this Jap "Judy" plunges into the sea after skimming over its target by less than 20 feet. A hit would have wreaked havoc among the parked planes on the carrier's deck.

36

2 August 1945

OUR NAVY

The SARA is veiled in smoke as fires take hold after the hit off Iwo Jima.

The USS LONGSHAW, DD539, lost off Okinawa, comes alongside a carrier to pass mail during operations somewhere in the Pacific.