stems, when all through the ship
 got a faucet did drip.
 The heads with care
 morning was there.
 in their beds
 anced in their heads.
 et and the Exec in his too,
 the chronometer struck two.
 theatches did scurry
 PJ-2 Fury.
 ough the hatches I tore,
 a watertight door.
 eyes should appear,
 in strange looking gear.
 heard on the deck,
 birdale wreck.
 from his head to his boots,
 ng one of those Hong Kong suits.
 lung on his back,
 he famous Schlitz six-pack.
 His smile was so weird.
 mission to grow that beard.
 from his mouth,
 ng leap was out.
 looked naughty as sin,
 te of my shin.
 s; then turned with a jerk.
 could hardly believe,
 thirty days leave.

 of his 'Nae West'.
 a test.
 craft', he jumped to his jet
 know not yet.
 fore he zoomed out of sight,
 and to all a good night.'

Admiral's Greetings

On Christmas day, one thousand nine hundred and fifty-five years ago we were promised there would be on earth peace, good will toward men. We, the officers and men of Task Force 77 are doing our part in these Far Eastern waters to further the keeping of that peace on earth. Throughout the remainder of your assignment in Task Force 77 you can take pride in the maintenance of a vigil which will hasten the day when we can all spend our holidays at home in a truly Christian era of peace on earth and good will toward men.

To all of you who have served so faithfully during my command of Task Force 77 I extend my sincere wishes for a very Merry Christmas and a joyous and prosperous New Year.

T. B. WILLIAMSON
 Rear Admiral, U. S. Navy

Christmas Prayer

O God, Our Father, grant that as we come to the realization of the true meaning of this Holy Season we might bring unto thy Holy Son, Our Savior, Our Worship and our Gifts as the Wise Men of old did. May the gifts we bring be Ourselves wholly and completely to Thy service and May our worship of Thee and Thy Son create such a change in our lives that we may go from this season different men. Grant thy richest blessings to be upon our Loved Ones and may the Divine Love so fill our hearts and lives that we may always seek to do thy will.

AMEN.
