

THE UNITED STATES NAVY

GUARDIAN OF OUR COUNTRY

The United States Navy is responsible for maintaining control of the sea and is a ready force on watch at home and overseas, capable of strong action to preserve the peace or of instant offensive action to win in war.

It is upon the maintenance of this control that our country's glorious future depends: the United States Navy exists to make it so.

WE SERVE WITH HONOR

Tradition, valor, and victory are the Navy's heritage from the past. To these may be added dedication, discipline, and vigilance as the watchwords of the present and the future.

At home or on distant stations we serve with pride, confident in the respect of our country, our shipmates, and our families.

Our responsibilities sober us, our adversities strengthen us.

Service to God and Country is our special privilege. We serve with honor.

THE FUTURE OF THE NAVY

The Navy will always employ new weapons, new techniques, and greater power to protect and defend the United States on the sea, under the sea, and in the air.

Now and in the future, control of the sea gives the United States her greatest advantage for the maintenance of peace and for victory in war.

Mobility, surprise, dispersal, and offensive power are the keystones of the new Navy. The roots of the Navy lie in a strong belief in the future, in continued dedication to our tasks, and in reflection on our heritage from the past.

Never have our opportunities and our responsibilities been greater.

EDITOR'S NOTE: This Statement of Principles is the result of a project under the guidance of ADM Arleigh A. Burke, Chief of Naval Operations, and VADM J.L. Holloway Jr., Chief of Naval Personnel. The principles, as printed here, will soon be put on the back of all liberty cards.

QUESTION: WHAT IS YOUR OPINION OF THE NAVY'S POLICY OF DRAFTING MEN?

LTJG LAMB

BUISCH

LTJG J.T. LAMB, 1ST DIV - I think the draft is a little chilly. However, seriously, I don't think the Navy will get the quality of men through the draft that we presently receive through enlistment.

LON BUISCH, AN-V-3 DIV - I don't think much of the idea in peace time. The draft always seems to want the men just as they are starting their career. I think the Navy should reduce the enlistment period to two years. That way sore men would enlist and the Navy wouldn't have to draft.

QUIGNON

SHADLE

LEONARD QUIGNON, FN, 1 DIV - As I see it, the nation should have a stand-by, Navy or Army. To do so and not slow down industry, we should have a short term draft. For those boys that graduate from high school and want to see the world, this is made to order.

JAMES W. SHADLE, SA, 2ND DIV - A man will have to go in some branch of service sooner or later. The Army drafts men so that they will be prepared in case of an emergency. They can learn a lot in the Navy.
