

Feb. 25, 1945

U.S.S. Saratoga the oldest carrier in the Navy was hit by a high and took two suicide planes lost over a hundred men. Is now headed back to the states.

Feb. 26, 1945

We bombed Tokio for the third time in two weeks. Weather was not very good and bombing condition poor. Targets were covered with snow and hard to see.

However we sunk a transport and set afire many small craft We received very little opposition.