ticipating (left to right seated) were Commander Louis W. Nockold, of the Admiral's staff; Rear Admiral Robert Macpherson, commander of anti-submarine Group Five; Ralph Burns, Office of Emergency Planning dispatched by the President. Standing is Wayne Sherwin, assistant to the president.
