

A Marine crewman drops to the ground from a helicopter to prepare to unload a heavy generator to ferry across the swollen Eel River near Rio Dell yesterday. Weather lifted from time to time during the day and rescue operations were going full blast by helicopters from the aircraft carrier USS Bennington anchored off the Humboldt Bay bar.