SPEAKING OF GOVERNMENT...

"THE OFFICE OF GOVERNMENT IS NOT TO CONFER HAPPINESS, BUT TO GIVE MEN OPPORTUNITY TO WORK OUT HAPPINESS FOR THEMSELVES."

...WILLIAM ELLERY CHANNING

The Art Of Being Right

by ENS. G. A. York (adapted from the writings of Maxey Jarman, Chairman of the Board-Genesco Inc.)

Although it is humanly impossible to always be right, the following are some of the rules for the "art of being right," put in the form of an acrostic.

Realize the sense of a philosophical approach to the daily events of life. All of us have faults, but everyone has good points. All of us have troubles but we also have many blessings, and often our troubles are blessings in disguise. There is no such thing as a free luck, but the person who uses his time well is likely to have more good luck than the dawdler. The good old days were never "what they used to be," but there are opportunities every day for those who look for them.

Invest wisely rather than spend too freely. Invest your energies and abilities in worthwhile living. Invest in things that have lasting value rather than in passing fads. Invest in your work—involve yourself so thoroughly that it challenges your full strength and mind.

Give yourself, your means, and your heart, so that YOU grow and enlarge your own capacity.

Hear what others have to say before you sound-off yourself. Listen with a third ear to discern what the other person really means when he speaks. And read widely of the choice literature—the great minds of all ages will speak to you.

Trust in a power greater than yourself.

CONGRATS TO SUPPLY GANG

That bunch from S-1 Division did it again.

They have been awarded Division-of-the-Month for the second time in succession!

They did the job with a total of 599.08 points.

All we can ask at this time is: Where the heck are the 10 boxes of paper clips PIO ordered four weeks ago?
