

Vows Exchanged In Ships Chapel

Wedding bells rang aboard BENNINGTON, Saturday March 20, when Chaplain R. Rogers united Lt. (jg) Dwight E. Silver and Pamela Herb in the bonds of matrimony in the ship's chapel.

The marriage was attended by Ens. T. A. MacDonald, best man, and Mrs. Kathleen MacDonald as matron of honor. Lt. (jg) B. Webb played the organ, and the reception was held in the wardroom.

Miss Herb arrived in Hawaii on Thursday the 19th, and Friday was spent in preparation for the wedding. Registration, license, and blood tests complicated matters, not to mention that Chaplain Rogers had to register with the State Department of Hawaii to perform the ceremony. The wedding, following a very busy day, was held at 2000.

Lt. (jg) Silver, on board for 21 months, is from New Mexico. His wife, Mrs. Silver, is from San Francisco where she works for Pan American Airlines. The Silvers' will make their home San Francisco.

Glenn Ford Visit

Among the many distinguished guests who visited BENN during its stopover in Pearl Harbor, Hawaii, were actor Glenn Ford and son.

The Hollywood twosome accompanied a group of 25 Los Angeles, Calif., civic leaders to Hawaii where they toured Naval installations as guests of Commander in Chief, Pacific Fleet.

Captain J. S. Hill, C-O of BENN, welcomed the visitors aboard and after a tour of the ship, was host to a luncheon in the wardroom.

With the actor and son are BENN's Executive Officer, Cdr. D. Monson, and ship's Air Officer, Cdr. D. Brady.
