

G ONG

(ABOVE)

HONG KONG TRAFFIC SIGNAL...Chinese policemen serve as traffic signals in certain parts of the British Crown Colony.

(CENTER PICTURE)

FROM VICTORIA PEAK...Bennington rests in Hong Kong harbor with the Victoria Business District on the near side and Kowloon on the far side.

(RIGHT)

TIGER PAGODA...One of the colony's well known landmarks is this nine-story white pagoda standing in Tiger Balm Gardens.

(BELOW)

NIGHT BEAT...Hennessey Street in the Wanchai District of Hong Kong is lined with bars, clubs, joints, holes-in-the-wall, pubs and other assorted establishments.

