

A tour of Corregidor Island where General MacArthur evacuated and escaped by submarine, gave sailors an opportunity to view the four square miles of war torn island.

On tour of Manila sailors visited the "Heroes Cemetery" where the allied dead of WWII are buried.

Division parties were in abundance and here personnel of X-Division relax after a day of beer, steak and recreation at Grande Island.