"Dear Blabby"

Dear Reader.

I realize what is going through your minds as you patiently await the return of your boyfriend, husband, or whatever he was before he left. I know you are wondering if he has changed. what will you say, and how will be react. Wellill have no fear, Blabby is here, and ready to be of assistance. Following are a few of the pointers I have picked up and feel would be of help

When making your preparation to welcome him back to society, you must make allowances for the very different environment which has been his home for the past six months. In a very small way, he may be suffering from Hawaiianitis, Jananeseitis, or have symptoms of the Western Pacific and must be handled with care. Show no alarm if he prefers a bathing suit to an umbrella when it is raining. Keep him away from large bodies of water: he will have your ironing board in it------he'll think it is a surfboard. Don't be alarmed if he pours Sake on his desert or mixes his peaches with Hair & Hair (100 proof) instead of whinned cream. Be tolerant when he takes his mattress off his bed and prefers to sleep on the floor. Don't let it shock you if when answering the phone he says "Moshi Moshi" or "Alohs Ce" instead of hello or good-bye. In a very short time he can be taurht to Sympathetically Yours.

P.S. Get the women off the streets, stock the ice box with boose and get his civilian clothes out of moth balls ...... HE'S ON HIS WAY HOME

Deer Blabby. As you kin see in perdy intelligent cause in typing this here letter too yoo. I thin in a purdy good gudge @ good lookin women so in saleful friefful frieffully putting in this hear entree. Her name is Miss Agathy wane Bulb. We call her blood and guts abby for short. I shore hope she wins cause we kin use the pub-
