

The first practice run gets underway beginning with hooking the capsule to the B & A Crane (left, opposite); sending up wind gauge balloons (right, opposite), and lowering it into the water (below, opposite). Bennington then steams away for her approach to the mock capsule (above) while it patiently awaits recovery (below).

