

NAVY SPONSORS CARTOON

CONTEST FOR ALL HANDS

The Navy is sponsoring a Comic Cartoon Contest and all naval personnel on active duty are eligible to enter.

All - Navy Championship trophies, will be awarded the five top winners. Certificates will also be given to those deserving honorable mention. Winning cartoons will be published in All Hands Magazine.

Entries must have a Navy theme, must be in good taste and suitable for general consumption and be in black ink on 8 x 10 1/2 -inch white paper or illustration board.

Bennington personnel should submit entries "in person" to the Public Information Office, Compartment B-0201CBL, in time for them to be forwarded to the Chief of Naval Personnel for judging by Sept. 1, 1955.

This week's question is: WHAT DO YOU INTEND TO DO ON YOUR FIRST LIBERTY WHEN THE SHIP RETURNS TO THE N. Y. AREA?

Paul Kunkl, BMC, Jasper, Ind. I'm going to take a little tour of the city — the museums, the art galleries and the Met. Then I'll stop in Howard Johnson's on the way back to the ship for a double malt.....

Wayne Eldridge, PA, K. C., Kansas - I'm going to get married to a girl living in Bayonne. I've got the ring bought already, all I need now is the preacher and a good apartment.

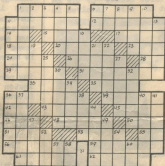

Franklin Green, AOC, Jacksonville, Fla. - The first thing I'm going to do when we get back to N. Y. is check the train schedules to Florida. Then, I'm going to drink me a bunch of beer.
