

QUESTION:

WHY DID YOU SHIP OVER?

HANECAK

CRANDALL

J.P. HANECAK FT2 FOX DIV. Before entering the Navy I had no trade and have since learned to work with electronics and radar. I like this type of work very much. I'm also able to learn about other people - how they live and act.

W. CRANDALL AB1 V-3 DIV. I have had five brothers in the Navy before me and we all agree that the Navy just can't be beat. I've been in eight years and 10 months and in 11 years

JOHNSON

POPE

L.B. JOHNSON SD2 S-5 DIV. I'll be retiring at 37 years old which no civilian job could offer. No position on the outside gives 52 weekends off a year plus every holiday. It actually figures out to only around 120 working days a year.

SERGEANT T.E. POPE 7TH DIV. Personally I'm a twenty year man but a man makes his own life. Two, four, six or twenty years he should make the best of it rather than the worst.

Twelve Matches On Boxing Card For Tonight

The leather will fly Oct. 15, in hangar bay one as boxing smashes its way into the spotlight.

The smoker will start at 1900 enabling both duty sections to watch at least a part of the fracas. There are twelve bouts in all. Five will be exhibitions given by the Bennington boxing team under the heading of Coach Lt. W.E. Conniff while the other seven are amateur go's.

Much enthusiasm has been noticed in the fighters and those connected with them. Mr. Conniff states that with a little practice the boys will be mighty tough to beat.

The main scrap of the evening will match a pair of rugged novice heavyweights; Jesse Waller and O.S. Locklin. Presiding officials are LCDR Hope, Captain Twomey, 1st Lt Karker and Ensign DiPace, with Dr. Chmielewski at ringside, ready for any needed medical attention.

According to the men preparing this show, it promises to be filled with excitement and plenty of thrills for onlookers as well as participants.

WORK OUT - Bob Epperson, a light heavyweight, gets into shape by working out on the speed bag. Bob will fight in one of the featured exhibition bouts on Saturday.

Bennington Defeats Uruguayan All-Stars

Smashing through with 12 big runs in the last two innings gave the Bennington softball team a 21 to 9 victory over the Uruguayan All-stars on September 25th.

The score falls short of telling the story, for the game was a battle with the Uruguayan All-stars jumping off to a fast start and leading 4-0 at the end of the third. A Bennington rally in the fourth, aided by the opposing twirlers wildness, put the ship's crew ahead for the first time.

The All-stars weren't to be denied and retaliated to tie it up at the end of five, nine all. Team Captain Don Fergus clouted a three run homer in the sixth as the Bennington boys tightened up and went on to score nine more insurance runs while holding their opponents scoreless for the remainder of the contest.

Ray Pena was the winning pitcher and John Baltus's three hits, including a double, provided top woodwork for the Bennington.
